How to interpret the analysis

Each indicator on the dashboard has:

- a trend line to show the LA's change over time for up to four years (subject to availability of the data)
- a rank of the LA indicator against its 10 statistical neighbours and the ~151 LAs in England (although in some instances some LA data is suppressed and therefore excluded from the rankings)
- two bar charts showing the difference to the LA's statistical neighbour average and the England average. Note that if the indicator is a percentage the difference is in percentage points; for example, 20% vs 23% is a 3% point difference. If the indicator is a number, the difference is a percentage, for example, 100 vs 110 is a 10% difference
- a 4 year trend showing how the LA performs vs England using the same method as the two bar charts. The latest year of data is on the right.

There are two types of indicator, performance indicators and volume & incidence indicators, as shown below:

Performance indicators

Performance indicators are those that allow the measurement of "better" or "worse" performance. Note that for some performance indicators better performance means a higher percentage (e.g. achievement of attainment thresholds), while in other cases lower means better (e.g. absence rates).

The best performing statistical neighbour ranks 1st, while the worst ranks 11th. The worst ranked LA in England ranks ~151st. Ranks in the top/bottom quartile amongst statistical neighbours and in England are highlighted.

Volume & incidence indicators

Volume & incidence indicators have no "better" or "worse" performance, just more or less of something.

The bar is purple where your LA has a larger volume or incidence than the average, and orange when lower

Small number suppression
 In instances where there are fewer than 6 pupils in the indicator, the latest LA value, ranks and differences will be shown in grey text, with no coloured background on the rank.
